

TCG Hires Senior Consultant

Atlanta, GA, October, 2005 - Taylor Consulting Group, Inc. announces the expansion of the Company's team through the addition of Matthew L. Hutchison as a Senior Consultant. In that role, Matt will be assisting the firm with financial analysis and business modeling in the areas of business enterprise valuation, tax compliance, corporate planning and forecasting, and financial reporting.

Mr. Hutchison brings a wide base of relevant experience to the position. Prior to joining TCG, he worked for Ernst & Young, LLP as an Audit Senior. During his tenure at E&Y, he assisted in the planning, organization, and execution of financial statement audits for several multi-billion companies. Mr. Hutchison holds a CPA and is licensed in Georgia.

"We are excited to have Matt join us here at TCG. Matt's background in accounting and audit is a true asset and I am sure he will have a real impact on our firm and with his clients," said Robert J. Taylor, President of Taylor Consulting Group, Inc.
